

Head Coach

Craig Robrock

Head Coach Craig Robrock grew up in Prior Lake, MN joining his local club, Black Dog, at the age of 4. His greatest swimming achievement during age group swimming was placing second at central mega zones in the 100 free when he was ten. He swam his way to the University of Denver competing against fellow coach Connor McGinnis in 2016-2017 Summit League championships. While swimming at the University of Denver, he swam IM/Distance. His main events were the 400IM, 200IM, and the 200Br. He was a finalist at the National invitational championship in the 400IM and the 100 IM. He came to Jackson following his education in the hospitality industry. He graduated with a degree in Hospitality Management.

Head to University of Denver Swim and Dive Program for more information.

;https://denverpioneers.com/sports/mens-swimming-and-diving/roster/craig-robrock/2829